|	Profile Background:
Hermione	• Female, 22 • Human geography Masters student Goal: To be able to use an application that produces the information about the population, be able to use this information to carry out research
Expectations: To be able to find specific information, such as top populated countries, capital cities sorted from largest to smallest countries, the information regarding the distribution of the population in the city vs rural areas. Be able to use the information to carry out research.	Scenario: Hermione is a graduate student who has a research paper on how the population of the countries varies, and how the population is distributed across the countries, for example the population in the city vs rural areas.

	Profile Background:
Bob	• Male, 34 • Application Administrator Goal: To be able to maintain the application so that users can use the application smoothly, and be able to fix any bugs and prevent any security breaches.
Expectations: To be able to update the database with newer population information, this also includes updating the organised lists and the population report. Be able to maintain security measures and prevent any security breaches. Have access to login credentials, and be able to update passwords	Scenario: Bob has a Software Development Masters, and more than 10 years of experience in developing and maintaining applications. He takes his new job as administrator very seriously, and wishes to do well.